

Carlo Pellegrino Marsala Fine DOC

+265439 Specialty Listing (12x750) $16.99

Italy

Carlo Pellegrino was founded in Marsala in 1880. Since then it has grown constantly. It is now one of the leading Sicilian companies, not only for the production and sale of Marsala, but also for wines of Pantelleria, DOC table wines and wines under the label of Duca di Castelmonte. Today Pellegrino has three operative units. The historical cellars in Marsala, a second winery near Marsala in Cardilla and a third winery built in 1992 on the island of Pantelleria.

Italy's most celebrated dessert wines!

Grape variety: Grillo, Cataratto & Inzolia

Area: Province of Trapani

Alcohol: 17%

Sugar content: 53.4 g/l

Ageing: Over one year in oak barrels.

Tasting Notes: A light amber colour. Nutty, toffee flavours with a spicy warm finish. Served slightly chilled with toasted almonds; ideal for cooking.

