Robert Parker Jr., The Wine Advocate: One of my favorite estates from Sardinia, Argiolas, located just north of Cagliari, has long promoted the island's indigenous varietals, including Nuragus and Vermentino for their whites, and such red grapes as Cannonau, Monica, Carignano, and Bovale Sardo. I strongly urge readers to check out these fabulous wine values as they are every bit as good as these enthusiastic notes suggest. Just one caveat: Drink the whites within a year of release, and the reds within several.

“Mineral, apple and light honey character follows through to a medium body, with good fruit and a clean finish. Drink now”
