CANTINA TOLLO produces wines made from grapes grown in the Abruzzo region of central Italy. Colle Secco Rubino Montepulciano d'Abruzzo DOC is ruby red in colour, with a dry aroma, mellow body and an alcohol content of over 13%. It is best served at temperatures of 14 to 16 degrees Celsius and should be opened at least 1/2 hour prior to drinking to maximize the enjoyment. This classic wine is a great choice for strong first courses, roasted meat and game. Colle Secco is the quintessential pasta wine.

"Ruby red with slight garnet and crimson highlights. It has a bouquet of spices, cocoa, black cherries, liquorice and cloves. Full-bodied with good structure and sweet tannins. Very well-balanced with excellent length and finish."
